+ Oklahoma Federal Credit Union wants you to have financial peace of mind.

As a 72-year-old federally chartered credit union, we are committed to serving our members and maintaining a well-diversified portfolio of deposits and loans. In light of the recent failures and subsequent FDIC take overs of Silicon Valley Bank (SVB) and Signature Bank, concerns about the stability of other financial institution are understandably heightened. As a member-owned cooperative, Oklahoma Federal Credit Union's business plan is fundamentally different from those of SVB and Signature Bank. On behalf of our volunteer Board of Directors, who represent your best interest, we want to reassure you that your money is secure at Oklahoma Federal Credit Union.

Deposit accounts at Oklahoma Federal Credit Union are insured up to $500,000. This exceptional level of coverage is attained through a combination of federal insurance provided by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) and private insurance from Excess Share Insurance Corporations (ESI). NCUA's basic coverage insures credit union members' deposits up to $250,000, but accounts may be structured in different ways – such as joint, payable-on-death or IRA accounts – to achieve federal coverage of more than $250,000. For details about federal deposit insurance, or how to structure accounts to qualify for greater coverage, please check with a credit union representative.

As we look to the future and the challenges that are ahead, rest assured that Oklahoma Federal Credit Union is constantly listening and striving to meet the needs of our member-owners. We approach those challenges as opportunities to benefit Oklahoma Federal Credit Union and our members. We know that you have many options when you choose your financial partner, and are sincerely honored that you have chosen Oklahoma Federal as your financial institution. Remember, that at Oklahoma Federal, you are not just another member and we are not just another credit union.
